

11 (short) Three parallel infinitely long wires are placed in the same plane and adjacent wires are separated by a distance d . Each wire carries a current of I and all currents are flowing in the same direction, as shown in Fig. 6. The radius of the wire is significantly smaller than d . Find the positions at which the total magnetic flux density is zero. [10]

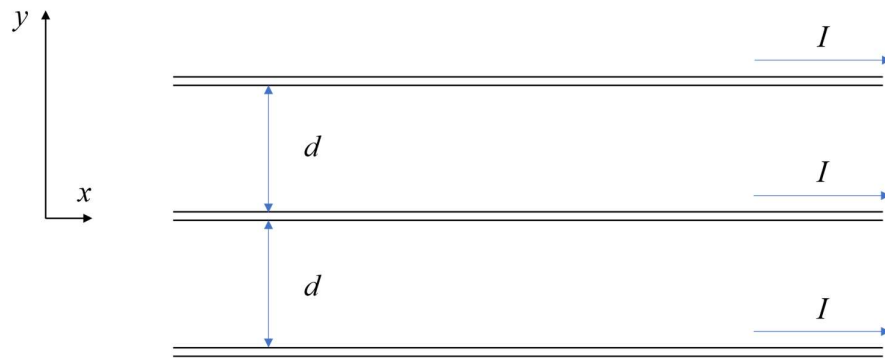

Fig. 6